Psalm 1

How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers!
But his delight is in the law of the Lord,
And in His law he meditates day and night.
And he will be like a tree firmly planted by streams of water,
Which yields its fruit in its season,
And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers.

The wicked are not so, But they are like chaff which the wind drives away.
Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous,
But the way of the wicked will perish.

Do you walk in the counsel of the wicked? Do you listen to the world's way more than God's?
From where do you seek counsel?

Do you stand in the path of sinners? Do you contemplate, think about, stop and take it in?

Do you sit in the seat of scoffers? If you've listened and contemplated, the next step is becoming a scoffer. What safeguards are you placing in your life so that you don't become a scoffer?

Do you delight in the law of the Lord? What brings you delight?

Do you meditate on God's Word? Meditate just means to think deeply and carefully, to focus your mind on God's Word. Do you focus when you spend time in His word? Or are you distracted?

Do you think you are firmly planted in God's Word? If so, how and why? If not, why not?

Is your life yielding fruit? How do you know?

Is your leaf withering?

Are you prospering God's way?

How well do you know God's Word?

What are you doing to learn it?

Are you obeying whatever God shows you?
